

TIMES PICTURE PAGE OF LIVE VIEWS AND NEWS

THE "VIENNESE WALTZ," the newest ballroom fad, is explained pictorially for readers of The Times by Stafford Pemberton, a Washington dancer, formerly with the Winter Garden, and Miss Betty Bermand. The waltz was popular this summer at Newport and promises to hold its own this winter in Washington.

—Times Staff Photographer.

A GRACEFUL STEP in the "Viennese Waltz" as danced for The Times by Stafford Pemberton and Miss Betty Bermand.

—Times Staff Photographer

CUPID LOST OUT in the romance of Miss Mirlam Harriman, former vice-president of the Junior League of New York, whose engagement to Albert L. Hoffman, Harvard graduate, has been broken.

—International.

A POPULAR society girl is Miss Eleanor Davies daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Davies. She was a debutante last winter.

Harris & Ewing.

STAGE STRUCK FLAPPERS of the South Sea Islands besiege R. A. Walsh, Goldwyn director, for parts in his new picture, "Passion of the Seas." The film is being staged in the South Seas.

—International.

A MODERN INDIAN princess and her papoose are Mrs. Nana Hall and her baby daughter Nina, attending the annual powwow of their tribe in Chicago.

—International.

"MOVIE" TARGETS have been installed in the shooting galleries of the New York police department. The marksmen are taught to wing a crook struggling with a fellow member of the force, avoiding wounding their comrade.

—P. and A. Photos.

A YOUTHFUL HEROINE is Miss Katherine Doty, age fifteen, of Saranac Lake, N. Y. She saved five persons when the machine she was driving was pushed off a thirty-foot embankment into the lake.

—International.

GIRLS WILL BE GIRLS says Auguste Jeansonne, aged 111, of his giddy young daughter, Mrs. Jean Baptiste Fruge, age 92. To please his "girl" Jeansonne attended the carnival at Opelousas, La.

—International.

TRYING TO SNEAK in under the "big tent" the circus "cop" caught "Doug" and his "buddy." Without his famous mustache Charlie was effectively disguised, but there was no mistaking Doug.

—International.

THE threatened extra session does not seem to be worrying Senator Lodge and Speaker Gillette, joking with newspaper men at the White House.

Harris & Ewing.

See the News of the World AT ALL LEADING THEATERS SHOWING INTERNATIONAL NEWS

Released by Universal Film Exchanges